Long story short, we’ve got more than 50 years’ experience in the staffing game. In that time, we’ve merged, acquired and grown our way to becoming the global staffing leader. The name “Adecco” itself actually came about back in 1996 when two of the world’s top staffing firms, Adia and Ecco, merged. And while we appreciate our history, we’re much more focused on the future-ours and yours.

We are the onsite provider for Credit Suisse when it comes to contracting. We have a dedicated team in place and are responsible for 100% fulfillment.

Coach was founded in 1941 as a family-run workshop. In a Manhattan loft, six artisans handcrafted a collection of leather goods using skills handed down from generation to generation. Discerning consumers soon began to seek out the quality and unique nature of Coach craftsmanship.

Now greatly expanded, Coach continues to maintain the highest standards for materials and workmanship. Coach’s exceptional work force remains committed to carefully upholding the principles of quality and integrity that define the company. We attribute the prominence of the Coach brand to the unique combination of our original American attitude and design, our heritage of fine leather goods and custom fabrics, our superior product quality and durability and our commitment to customer service.
